- a. What are we going to do about the conference? Amy stated the Argosy is shut down. Contract has a clause about acts of god is cause for canceling event. Jennifer reached out to a contact and asked for them to review contract and found that the language is loose, they suggested it might be better to approach the hotel on moving event. Jamie suggested, if not able to cancel event then suggest moving to the next year. Amy thinks we should wait and cancel, at least for a few more weeks, and see if Argosy will work with us. Jennifer has sent notification to Neil at national on guidance for what to do for our business portion requirements held at the regional conference.
